Gamma Solutions to exhibit at 2007 QLD Supply Chain & Logistics Conference

July 2007 – Gamma Solutions are participating in the QLD Supply Chain & Logistics Conference, which is to be held on the 2nd and the 3rd of August at the Sofitel Hotel, Brisbane.

With over 400 delegates anticipated to attend, and a theme of “Change. Contribute. Communicate. Collaborate.” the 2007 Supply Chain & Logistics Conference is expected to be the biggest Supply Chain and Logistics event ever held in Queensland.

Gamma Solutions offers advanced mobile data collection solutions for Supply Chain, Logistics, Transport and Logistics Industries, and will be exhibiting on Stand 16.

Among the products to be showcased during the QLD Supply Chain & Logistics Conference are the Intermec CN3 mobile computer and the Intermec CK31ex handheld computer. The Intermec CN3 mobile computer is designed to meet the needs of workers performing mission-critical tasks in transportation, logistics and field service.

The Intermec CK31ex is the first handheld computer with integrated near-far area imaging technology that can read virtually any symbology from six inches to 50 feet.
