Gamma Solutions to exhibit at the Smart Supply Chain and Logistics Conference and Expo 2015

Melbourne April 14th 2015 – Gamma Solutions today announced it will be showcasing an extensive range of wireless data capture equipment. This year the Smart Conference and Expo is being held outside of Sydney for the first time, at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre on May 26th and 27th.

The Smart Conference is recognised within Australia and internationally as the leading supply chain and logistics event in the Australasian region. It promises to continue the strong tradition of delivering relevant supply chain and logistics practices, strategies and valuable information along with many networking opportunities directly to industry leaders.

This year will incorporate a new structure for the conference including:

- Peer to peer learning from real world case studies
- Site visits
- Informal networking and
- product and service supplier collaboration

“We are looking forward to showing end users our full range of rugged handheld computers, vehicle mounted computers and barcode scanners” says Gamma Solutions National Sales Manager Paul Pleming, “There is a lot of potential for these units to help organisations and we believe the Smart Conference and Expo is the best way for Gamma Solutions to show them to our target audience”
