Gamma Solutions Opens online store

Oct 2007 – Gamma Solutions are excited to announce the opening of its online store www.online2u.com.au.

"The addition of the online store will expand our item selection and make it available to a broader range of customers looking for quality products. With over 70 per cent of Australians online, there is a huge demand for access to shopping online," said Gamma Solutions' Michael Atallah.

The online store is an easy-to-use and secure website that displays information and images about a selection of Information Technology products from leading manufacturers such as Hewlett Packard, Cisco, D-Link, IBM, Sony, Logitech, Viewsonic, TOMTOM and many more. Included in the mix, Gamma Solutions will be introducing Data Collection products such as barcode printers, barcode scanners and accessories from Intermec, Zebra, Datalogic, LXE, Psion Teklogix and other mobile data collection suppliers.
